

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

JOSHUA CROFT,

Defendant.

Case No. 2:13-cr-00019-KJD-DJA

ORDER—Amending Judgment

Presently before the Court is Defendant's Motion to Amend Judgment (#250). The Government filed a Notice of Non-Opposition. (#252). Defendant requests this Court vacate its previous judgment and re-enter an amended judgment that is identical in all respects except for the exclusion of Special Condition of Supervision Three. (#252, at 8). For the reasons stated below, Defendant's motion is granted.

On October 18, 2023, this Court sentenced Croft to eighteen months in custody, to run consecutively with case 2:13-cr-00054-KJD-DJA, resulting in a total term of thirty-six months. (#236). As part of the judgment, Special Condition of Supervision Three imposed a sixty-day period of home confinement. Id. at 5. Following his sentencing, Defendant appealed the Court's judgment to the Ninth Circuit. (#237). Defendant asserts that during his appeal, "the parties reached a negotiated resolution wherein Mr. Croft's sentence and renewed term of supervised release would remain the same, but that Special Condition of Supervision Three would be removed." (#252, at 2). In light of this negotiation, the Ninth Circuit remanded the matter back to this Court for the limited purpose of considering the Defendant's current motion. (#249, at 1). Therefore, as the Court finds good cause for granting the motion, and since the parties are in agreement with this course of action, Defendant's motion is GRANTED.

//

//

//

1 Accordingly, IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the Court's previous judgment (#236)
2 is VACATED, and an amended judgment will be entered. The amended judgment will be
3 identical in all respects except for the exclusion of Special Condition of Supervision Three—
4 Home Confinement with Location Monitoring.

5
6
7 Dated this 9th day of April 2024.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'Kent J. Dawson', is written over a horizontal line.

Kent J. Dawson
United States District Judge